

The Mirror Foundation – Mutual Recognition of Volunteerism

<http://www.themirrorfoundation.org/>

September 16, 2014

Following international author and advocate Gregg Milligan's volunteer week with the Mirror Foundation in Thailand, he sent a lovely gift basket to The Foundation volunteers to thank them. Milligan also received a certificate to recognize the four projects he completed; a first for The Foundation to have a single volunteer complete all four projects.

Milligan's special thanks and appreciation goes again to The Mirror Foundation. "They are the true hearts. The battle worn angels of humanity. Our only hope for a better future. Khorb Khun Mark to all at The Mirror Foundation." <http://www.themirrorfoundation.org/>.
